Description
At the moment the issue summary view (http://www.redmine.org/projects/redmine/issues/report) only allows to see issues of this project but not for the subprojects. In our case we want to have total stats for all project of all division of a resort, so we need such parent level reporting. I tried to configure a filter which allows the table view of issues in subproject we want to be reported in summary, but the summary still shows no issues for subprojects.

@Ewan

I don't know but the more we need to tidy this up to get a better planning for future releases and help the developer do their real work.
