This issue reproduces also on the latest trunk version.

I think that this issue is generated by another issue: time spent filters are not stored in the session.

To reproduce:

1. Go to the spent time tab

2. Create a filter
3. Navigate to issues tab
4. Return to the spent time tab
5. Observe that the filters are reseted.

The below change seems to fix the issue. I'm going to make a patch with tests for this.

Storing the filters in session is a different behaviour, please open another ticket and we'll see if this is desirable, thanks.
I've have the reported issue in r16056 without changing this behaviour.
