Description
If I disable the time tracking module I think the right-hand side of the project overview should ne show an empty column (see screenshot).
The grey area looks strange, especially with redmine alternate theme.

If I disable Time Tracking, I still have content: "Issues", "My Custom Queries", "Custom Queries". I don't know why you don't have at least "Issues".

Note there is a plugin that allows hiding right pane, see:

<http://www.redmine.org/issues/5746>

<http://www.redmine.org/projects/redmine/wiki/PluginCollapse>

I did not try to use it.

Note you can also produce a css to reduce it's width to the minimum, I reduced it because it was too large for me:

in "public/themes/<mytheme>/stylesheets/application.css, add:

```
/* Change sidebar width, too large by default */
```

#sidebar{ float: right; width: 12%; position: relative; z-index: 9; padding: 0; margin: 0;}

I don't think this is really a defect, because this corresponds to quite empty Redmine setup ...

I updated to redmine 2.4 and it looks like this. I do not use any plugin or something like that.

It is the standard redmine setup.
