Description Open issue page, click on Spent time link: http://redmine.org/projects/redmine/issues/1111/time_entries then edit or delete any entries and you will be forwarded to: http://redmine.org/projects/redmine/time_entries But I'd like to stay at previous page to continue some action there. That doesn't happen in redmine 3.0.0 .
It stays on same page after edit or delete .

No. The redirection still happens. I tested in latest trunk (r14155).

Strange, I've tested with my 2.6.0 and 3.0 and redirection gone away.

I tried testing again and realized that If I delete a time entry the redirection is still there, but no if I just edit the time entry.

Related/duplicates #9016.

From my checks, the current route for viewing issue time entries is `/projects/redmine/time_entries?issue_id=~1` and you are redirected to the same page after delete/edit action.

I'm closing this issue from 2 reasons:

- I tried again and it works as expected
