Description
In My Page, I'd like to have Unassigned and OpenIssues panels. It's really useful to manage a project. I just want to see which Issues weren't assigned yet, and see wich issues are open.

Use custom queries for that.
Feel free to reopen the issue if I misunderstood your need (of course, precise it ;))

I know about custom queries, but you can't add them to your "My Page", and I think it is enough important to be there. At least those two examples I've mentioned.

Seconded. But the solution is to allow putting custom queries to "My page" in general, not just treating the unsassigned issues somehow specially.

So, I'd close this one and open (or find?) another for extending My page customizazions.

This would then be a dup of #1710.
