.. I've see some projects change their license model (like Mozilla, openssl, ..) - and the pain to get into contact and agreement from all the contributors.
(see also https://github.com/MariaDB/server/pull/319 or https://www.openssl.org/blog/blog/2017/03/22/license/)
My intention with this sentence was to say "if you ever will change license, it's ok for me."
