Description
When I fill out the form to report a bug and use "create and continue" it only displays "successfull creation" on the next page. If I want to find out what ID this bug got (because I want to add it to the "todo" in the sourcecode) i have to click on "Issues" first and search for my bug. I would wish, that instead of only "successfull creation" the text would be something like "Bug #328 successfully created." so I could simply copy "Bug #328" and paste it into the sourcecode at the appropriate place. It would be even better, if the link to the bug created would be posted, so I could add a full link to my sourcecode. thanks.

Yes, this would be useful indeed!

#3 - 2011-02-15 11:58 - Victor Sergienko

Great thing to have. It could even be an issue link.

Can it be that the patch is not accepted due because it breaks localization?
