Description

When creating multiple issues in Redmine, I wanted that "save and continue" to persist some of the form states for the next issue.

To do it, I made this little patch that enables a new issue to inspire itself on another issue.

I've tested the patch against the stable releases 0.8.1 and 0.8.2.

I am stepping down from working on Redmine. If someone else is interesting in working on this issue, feel free to reassign it to them.
