Description
I propose to add "Create and continue" in the new custom field form. The button is already implemented in the new issue form. Currently, you have to click the mouse button 3 times to create another custom field after creating a custom field (click "Issues" -> "New custom field" -> "Next"). It is really tiresome especially when you create many custom fields. This will be resolved if the new custom field form has a "Create and continue" button like the new issue form.

- File feature-31159.patch added

After applying the patch:

When a custom field of Issues type is created by the "Create on Continue" button, it redirects to `/custom_fields/new?type=IssueCustomField` while maintaining the type.
