Description

Hello, this issue regards the web interface.

A long text with no spaces inside the description section of the issue overflows the yellow box.

This css behavior can be fixed adding the rule overflow-wrap: break-word; to the div #content > div > div.description > div.wiki.

It forces the text to get wrapped inside the box avoiding to add endline characters to it.

Ciao

I searched before but didn't find that previous issue, sorry. Will watch that then.

I hope the issue will be fixed asap.
