Description

Would it be possible to set the roadmap to not hide, i.e. not list as Completed, any versions that have open tasks?
It might be better instead to show them but highlight the fact that they are unfinished.

I prefer to show only versions to come on the roadmap.

But I added the details of issues count for each version on the Reports wiew. You can now easily view for which versions you have open issues.
Eg. http://demo.redmine.org/reports/issue_report/1
