Description

source:/trunk/lib/redmine/scm/adapters/filesystem_adapter.rb@21772#L24 contains the following statement:

require 'find'
```

As far as I can tell this requirement is obsolete and doesn't serve any purpose. None of the module's methods are used in the file and I also don't see any other references to the module.

It looks like the `require 'find'` was already unnecessary when FilesystemAdapter was added in r1508.

Setting the target version to 5.1.0.
