

Redmine - Patch #40693

Ignore status in rolled_up_status if workflow only defines identity transition

Description
This is a similar issue to #37636 .
In Project#rolled_up_statuses, we currently do not exclude workflows transitions which only define the identity transition (i.e. a transition from one status to the exact same one). This results in statuses to be included here which do not actually take part of a workflow (anymore) and which can not be changed after #37636 .
The attached patch ignores these statuses in Project#rolled_up_statuses. This method is used in Redmine core only for the ReportsController. It is also used by external plugins (such as the Agile plugin) to select the shown statuses.
