Description

In page http://www.redmine.org/wiki/1/HowTo_Mylyn there are two advertisement link in the howto description

In the image they are visible: are just under the "Using specialized Redmine-Mylyn connector" title and are called Energy and Phone They point to http://earth4energyweb.co.cc/ and http://www.reversephonedetectiveweb.co.cc/

I think (and I hope) they are not allowed to stay there

You are probably right, and I rolled back the page to the previous version. JPLang can maybe have a look a the activity of the incriminated user and make sure he didn't change anything else.
