Description
Emails header were added in #2852 . They are useful for the single issue email. But I'm not sure is it really needed in reminders.

Why not ?

#2 - 2011-04-26 12:55 - Dmitry Babenko

Because it seems that it is used to truncate an email when you reply on it and it is processed by Redmine's email receive feature. So, if you reply on the reminder's email nothing will happen.

Also, these headers include into the "Your Redmine account activation" e-mail. And vary many users reply to this e-mail.
